ETAuto Sales Analysis: Automotive Sales still patchy for November

The automotive industry is the fastest to recover, though the Indian economy is yet to come out of the woods. November has been a steady month, but brought negativity back to the market, dotting double-digit dip. As we enter December 2020, the industry remains on edge about the surprises in store for 2021. It could open a new can of disruptions for 'Auto', India's most organised sector.
